PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A hearing in the above-captioned matter was held on December 14, 1999, before Administrative Law Judge William A. Black. The Division of Enforcement appeared by Attorney Charles J. Howden. The respondents did not appear.

Based on the entire record of this case, the undersigned administrative law judge recommends that the Real Estate Board adopt as its final decision in this matter, the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Johnnie D. Bond, date of birth March 18, 1952, is licensed in the state of Wisconsin as a real estate broker, having license #90-48239. This license was first granted to him on December 6, 1995.

This license is currently in a non-renewed status. WFRS has the right to renew this license upon payment of a late fee and the renewal credential fee pursuant to section 440.08(3) of the Wisconsin Statutes. The most recent address on file for WFRS with the Department of Regulation and Licensing is P.O. Box 06662, Milwaukee, WI 53206.

4. Wisconsin Realty & Financial Services, LLC., ("WR&FS"), is a Wisconsin Limited Liability Corporation and is licensed as a Real Estate Corporation having Wisconsin license #91-700073. b. Interstate transmitting of funds in violation of Title 18, United States Code, sections 2 and 2314; and

c. Interstate transmitting of funds in violation of Title 18, United States Code, sections 2 and 2314.

8. The respondents were validly served pursuant to statute.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Real Estate Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to section 452.14, Stats.

2. By failing to file an Answer as required by Wis. Admin. Code RL 2.09, and by failing to appear at the hearing, the respondents are in default under Wis. Admin. Code RL 2.14, and the Real Estate Board may make findings and enter an order on the basis of the Complaint and the evidence presented at the hearing.

3. The respondent, Bond, has violated sections 452.14(3)(i), and (k), Stats, and Wis. Adm. Code section RL 24.17(2).

5. Respondents WFRS, and WR&FS are subject to discipline pursuant to section 452.14(4), Stats.

ORDER

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the licenses of respondents Johnnie D. Bond, #90-48239; Wisconsin Financial and Realty Services Inc., #91-83453; and Wisconsin Realty & Financial Services, LLC., #91-700073 be Revoked, along with any right to renew. Costs to Complainant.

OPINION

Section RL 2.14 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code provides that a respondent who fails to answer a complaint or fails to appear at a hearing is in default. If found to be in default, the disciplinary authority may make findings and enter an order on the basis of the complaint and other evidence against the respondent. In this case, after proper service the respondents did not file an answer to the above-captioned complaint, nor appear at the scheduled hearing. As a result, the respondents are in default.

Violation of sections 452.14(3)(i)(k), Stats by respondent Bond

Sections 452.14(3)(i)(k), Stats. provide for the discipline of a licensee where the licensee has:

"(i) Demonstrated incompetency to act as a broker, salesperson or time-share salesperson in a manner which safeguards the interests of the public;

(k) Been guilty of any other conduct, whether of the same or a different character from that specified herein, which constitutes improper, fraudulent or dishonest dealing."

Bond, has been found guilty of fraudulent and dishonest dealing, which also constitutes incompetence based upon his scheme to defraud mortgage lenders, investors, and the City of Milwaukee. Bond obtained loan proceeds on real estate transactions using nominee borrowers, falsified financial information, and artificially inflated purchase prices. Such conduct supports a finding of fraudulent, dishonest and incompetent business practices in the use of his license.

Violation of Wis. Adm. Code section RL 24.17(2) by respondent Bond

Wis. Adm. Code section RL 24.17(2) provides in part:

"(2) Conviction. The board may discipline a licensee on the basis of a conviction of any crime, the circumstances of which substantially relate to the practice of real estate..."

The circumstances of Bond's violation of law substantially relate to his practice as a real estate broker. The exact same circumstances which constitute a violation of Wis. Adm. Code section RL 24.17(2), and sections 452.14(3)(i)(k), Stats., also are the circumstances which satisfy the factual elements of the crimes for which Bond was convicted. Bond used his real estate broker license to commit fraud. In this instance, therefore, Bond as a licensed real estate broker is the specific person contemplated whom, while subject to the rules of professional practice, can actually violate both a practice rule and a statutory fraud law by the same act. Bond has done so here. The abuse of his position of public trust as a licensed real estate broker also violated criminal law.

Wisconsin Financial and Realty Services Inc., and Wisconsin Realty & Financial Services, LLC., are subject to discipline pursuant to section 452.14(4), Stats.

Bond is a business representative of WFRS owing to his status as an officer and of WR&FS owing to his status as an officer and owner. Section 452.01(3k), Stats. By statute, it is sufficient cause for revocation of a business entity license where any business representative of the business entity, has been guilty of any act or omission which would be cause for refusing a broker's license to such person as an individual. Section 452.14(4). Bond's violation of section 452.14(3)(i), Stats., amounts to demonstrated incompetence for which the board may refuse licensure in the interest of safeguarding the public. Section 452.09(1)(e), Stats.

The final issue here is the appropriate discipline for the respondents keeping in mind the nature of the charges and the pattern and practice of his activities leading to this proceeding. Revocation of the respective respondents' licenses has been recommended. It is well established that the objectives of professional discipline include the following: (1) to promote the rehabilitation of the licensee; (2) to protect the public; and (3) to deter other licensees from engaging in similar conduct. State v. Aldrich, 71 Wis. 2d 206, 209 (1976). Punishment of the licensee is not an appropriate consideration. State v. McIntyre. 41 Wis. 2d 481, 485 (1969).

There is nothing in the record to suggest that imposing any discipline short of revocation would have a rehabilitative effect on the respondents or that there is an interest in being rehabilitated. The respondents have not come forward to show remorse, an explanation, or cooperation with the board in this matter.

Absent some mitigating evidence (of which none has been presented), imposing anything less than revocation would not aid in deterrence. To not revoke the respondents' licenses would instead wrongly signal others to engage in similar conduct without consequence. Revocation remains as the only way in which to safeguard the public.
